

IN THE SPECIFICATION

Please amend the first full paragraph at page 16 to read:

For economy and efficiency and to achieve best results in stressed pigs, the globulin composition should be dispersed in the water in a concentration of from about 0.375 to about 3.0% by weight. The concentration of IgG in the water in this concentration ranges from ~~approximately~~ about 0.1 – 0.75% by weight.